Two Shootings Reported Sunday

Two shooting incidents were reported early Sunday morning to Belle Glade. A man in suit and large and another was waiting charges by City St. Louis.

William B. Belle Glade Negro, is being sought by police after he seriously wounded King Cawb by discharging a shotgun at close range during an argument at 8th St. and Ave. C. Place about midnight Saturday.

James had been sought by police for the ice pick attack on his wife, Eunice, which had occurred two weeks ago. James successfully eluded police for the second time.

Cawb was taken to Belle Glade Memorial Hospital with wounds in the arm and side. A warrant has been issued charging James with assault with intent to kill.

The second incident was reported later after Allen Glade Negro and Clarence law wife of Walter Jones, 56, also of Belle Glade, was shot through the arm while struggling with her husband.

Investigator Lowery said Jones accused his wife of infidelity when she returned home early Sunday morning. He confronted her with a 38 Colt revolver. As she struggled to take the gun away from Walter, the gun went off. Jones then took his wife to Belle Glade Memorial Hospital where she is in fair condition. The incident took place at 919 SW Ave. D.

500 PEOPLE HERE

Park, Fla. told one of the hosts that he'd been on all eight of the boat-cruises and that our facilities and hospitality had never been exceeded any year by any city or camp. Similar expressions were forthcoming from many of the visitors.

The port utility building was ready Saturday through the efforts of E. D. Alford, plumber, and Bob Davis, builder. Other offerings during the week included the free transportation to and from the city provided by Belle Glade Boat-Ski Club members. There was free coffee and doughnuts on hand through the courtesy of Dixiana Lunch.

Only one race - backwards - was held and the winner was awarded a free case of motor oil. The city equipment got into the act by spraying the site to keep down bugs and mosquitoes.

There were a host of prize winners: The winning numbers were drawn by Ross Mary Haveland of Ocean Springs, Miss. Door prizes were won by Casey Moore and Dean Heston (best come-as-you-are) and others by J. D. Walsh, Orlando; Roy Ingersoll, Kissimmee; Carl Mangold and Davis Lewis, Tampa.

Fishing flies went to W. M. Mooney, Atlanta, Ga., Elgin Lewis, Tampa, and Jeanette Shores, Plant City. Reels were awarded Mrs. Georgia Mikovsky of this city and Lee Clothier, Tampa. Miss Nedra Mikovsky of Belle Glade and J. C. Sheppard, Orlando won camping coolers.

A vote of thanks goes out to Boat Club Commodore L. L. Smith, who acted as master of ceremonies; Mrs. Edwin Young, general hostess; Walter Schlechter, who provided a huge tent at the port site; Pappy Jones and many other Belle Glade boat owners and citizens for their cooperation.

Near future plans for the marina call for extensive work on the landscaping of the area. The next major event in the calendar at this time will be the visit of the Central Florida Cruise of Tampa under the command of Bob Baker, cruise master, who will be visiting the port sometime in December.

Refering to the Eagle game, Mayor said the few injuries the Rams had wasn't hurt them. Although good on offense, the green Ram line looks bad on defense.

quarter with a bruised hip. He does all our passing," Maynor noted. "We switched Thomas to defensive half and that was the first time he'd played there. We're doing better by one touchdown," he went on. "When you lose by just one, that means just a few mistakes are costing us."

Along with Thomas and Hamilton, Maynor singled out Chambers for the good offensive and defensive play.

Rams - Eagles

The scoring began when Fort Pierce took the opening kickoff and ground out short gains to the Belle Glade one when Fullback Marty Egan went over center to pay dirt. Jim King's conversion missed.

The Eagles scored in the second quarter after receiving a punt on their 34. They drove to the Ram 26 where Jim McCrindle passed to King who made a grandstand catch in the end zone. King's second kick was also missed.

Late in the first half Ram Quarterback Charles Schoenfeld passed to Crant for a 50-yard gain to the Eagle 25. The Rams pushed down the six where Schoenfeld hit Johnny Thomas with a touchdown pass and Crant skipped around right end for the extra point.

After no score in the third quarter, the Eagles scored early in the last stanza when McCrindle passed from the six where Crant to Williams in the end zone. King's third extra point try was good.

The Rams then began a drive on their 12 and moved on the ground to their 40. John Chambers took a handoff through the line and went 60 yards for the score. Schoenfeld's sneak missed an extra point try.

The Rams tried an onside kick with a minute left, but failed to score.

School Daze

The Rams lost their fourth game of the season, falling to Ft. Pierce 19-13. Charles Schoenfeld and John David Chambers led the Ram's offense.

Activities

This week is the week of the big homecoming game with Stuart. A big celebration has been planned with a homecoming queen, floats and other events. We hope homecoming will be a success, and will become an annual affair. Molly Forsee is our homecoming queen, and this is quite an honor.

The Belle Glade junior varsity kept up their winning ways by defeating Stuart 13-6 last week. The J's have won all their games, and are really going strong.

The Senior Class elected superlatives last week, and listed below are a few of them. Best All Around - Phil Crant and Carolyn Miller. Best Personality - Jack Hamilton and Cline Faulk. Most Intelligent - Randy Williams and Ouida Lanier. Most Lively to Succeed - Terrell Williams and Ouida Lanier. Best Dressed - Mike Challancin and Sandra Gove. Best Dancers - Charles Schoenfeld and Naomi Ford. Most Service to School - Dewitt Draa and Delores Robbins. Most Athletic - Johnny Thomas and Marsha Walker, and Most Talented - Molly Forsee and Leonard Higbee.

RAM-bling On

Quite a few old grads are expected at the homecoming game with Stuart... Last Friday's holiday was a welcome rest... Halloween is next week and no firecrackers have started showing up!
